

Alpha Aquisap

CLINICIAN SPEAKER

Originally from Northern California, Alpha discovered her love of pageantry arts with her high school color guard team. As her passion for the activity increased so did her desire to learn and grow. After high school, she was honored to join the Concord Blue Devils World Color Guard. Alpha has taught camps and clinics throughout the U.S. sharing the knowledge she gained as a student.

After her time in color guard, Alpha transitioned from the performing arts to hair make-up design. She has worked on print and television campaigns, celebrity clients as well as numerous high profile events. She is the current owner and Creative Director of "Sweet Fuss Hair and Makeup Artistry".