PERFORMANCE CLINICIAN

Brandi Ramirez, originally from Anaheim, California and now a resident of Chino Hills, California started her love for the activity at Ball Junior High School. Brandi is an alumni of the award-winning Loara High School Color Guard, where she was a guard member and a captain. After graduating, Brandi was hired as the guard technician and got her first color guard into WGI Finals. Brandi has worked with many programs such as Hart High School, Fountain Valley High School, Norco High School, Rancho Santa Margarita High School, Stockdale High School, Ayala High School, and Diamante Independent Open and World. Brandi is not only the Lead technician to these programs but also a designer and one of the biggest reasons for the success of Stockdale High School, Diamante World, and Ayala High School.

Brandi is a design consultant for Mandarins Drum and Bugle Corps, Diamante World, Ayala High School, and Stockdale High school as well as the lead technician for numerous other colorguards.
