

Keith Potter BIO

Keith began his pageantry career as a saxophone player and drum major for Center Grove High School in Greenwood, IN. After graduation, he became a drum major instructor at FJM clinics and later went on to join the Cadets of Bergen County as a member of the color guard from 1991-1993. He also performed with Pride of Cincinnati and Escapade winter guards during this same time period.

Once wrapping up his performance career, Keith quickly turned to education and design and has been serving as a color guard or program designer, at some capacity, for over 34 years. His previous design work includes: Carroll High School, Center Grove High School, Avon High School, Carmel High School, Arcadia High School, Escapade, Pride of Cincinnati, The Cadets of Bergen County, The Cavaliers, Program Designer for Carolina Crown, and Artistic Director for The Boston Crusaders.

